New York, June 5.—The Rev. James
S. Kittell, retiring president of the ReGoundary Park, N. J., to-day scored Billy Sunday, the evangelist, in his report on the "State of Religion."
"We do not need those kind of evangelists who work from the spectacular to the spiritual," he said, "or from the advance agent with financial terms to grant blessings. The ultimate responsibility does not rest upon J. Wilbur Chapman or William Sunday."
Dr. Kittell reported that there were 120 vacancies in the church, and but thirteen candidates to fill them.

Spilman Withdraws from Race,
H. E. Spilman, who several days ago announced his candidacy for the office of State Dairy and Food Commissioner, which will be made vacant by the resignation of Commissioner Saunders, yesterday said that he had withdrawn from the race. He notified Alexander Forward, secretary to the Governor, to this effect, but assigned no reason for his withdrawal.

Mrs. Philip Hichborn and Horace Wylie, Sald to He at Outs.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, June 5.—Mrs. Philip Hichborn and Horace Wylie, the Washing clubman who deserted his family to elope with Mrs. Hichborn, are reported to have separated in Paris.
The previous report was that they were happily living near Paris under the name of Mr. and Mrs. Wilborn, and that they had one child.
A year after her elopement with Horace Wylie, Mrs. Hichborn's husband committed suicide. Their child, Philip Hichborn, Jr., has been adopted by his aunt, Mrs. Paul Pearsall.

Out.
The principal features of the evening were the recitations of Misses Susie Moore, Ruth Cunningham, Mary Settle, Winnie Coleman. Esther Settle, Corrie Stinnett, Pearl Shuler and Estelle Whitten, the eight young women who competed for the declamatory medal; the duet was played by Misses Litzabeth Bowman; several motion songs beth Bowman; several motion songs by some of the younger pupils of the school, and two solos by Miss Nellie T. Bristow.

After a few minutes' deliberation, the committee, which was composed of Dr.

J. C. Reed, of Hampton; Professor Curtis Story, principal of the Monroe graded school, and A. E. Strode, awarded the gold medal to Miss Estelle Gilbert Whitten as the best declaimer.

Designates Judge.

Judge Clarence W. Robinson, of Newport News, was yesterday designated by Governor Stuart to hold the Juneterm of Northumberland County Circuit Court. The Governor recently appointed Judge Thomas E. Blakey, of Essex, to fill the vacancy on this bench, which was occasioned by the death of Judge T. R. B. Wright.

Condition Precarious The condition of Richard B. Saunders, son of E. A. Saunders, of 604 West Franklin Street, who was hurt when the automobile driven by Corydon Sutton turned-turtle on the Cary Street Road on the night of May 23, was last night reported at St. Luke's Hospital to be precarious.
